Auditor's Report for October 1908.

(a) In the budget only Rs. 350 is allowed as pay for the Vice-President But the Vice-President has drawn Rs. 450. The allowance of Rs. 100 is shown elsewhere.

(b) Mr. A. K. Pani (Health Officer) handed over charge to Mr. Krishna Rao, on or about the 25th of September 1908. The establishment bill of the Health Department for the month of September 1908, which was drawn on 1st October 1908, is signed by Mr. A. K. Pani. What status had he to sign.? Is there any Government order about this ? He again acted as such for some days ?

(c) To spend Rs. 248-12-0 to the roads inside the office compound seems to be very high and unnecessary. Was permission obtained previously ?

(d) A Cyclostyle machine is purchased and charged under "Tools and plants." It must have gone under "Contingencies."

(e) Mohatarfa collection is not at all satisfactory when compared to last years of the same month, which has fallen by 50 per cent.

(f) The so-called Demand, Collection and Balance account maintained in the Collection Department is practically useless, as it does not show what the demand is for the year and also the balance for the year.

(g) Again this time, conservancy department has not given their accounts. This is a serious negligence of some one and should be put a stop to.
